

Permit Error Webinar

Sponsored by

April 4, 2012
10:30 – 11:30 a.m.

Has your County faced Permit Error claims? Most Counties have...

So join the Counties Risk Pool in its first ever webinar on Wednesday, April 4, 2012. Mark Johnsen of the Karr Tuttle Campbell law firm will be presenting an interactive webinar on successful strategies for defending against these claims and avoiding them altogether.

Counties often face claims by landowners and developers alleging that the processing of permit applications was arbitrary, capricious, unreasonable and unlawful. Large monetary amounts are frequently sought to cover perceived losses. It is important for local governments to understand the nature of such claims and how to avoid them.

The Instructor

Mark R. Johnsen is a graduate of Harvard University (B.A. 1975, Cum Laude) and the University of Washington (J.D., 1980). Mr. Johnsen focuses his practice on litigation, with particular emphasis on land use and environmental law, products liability and appellate practice. Mr. Johnsen represents WCRP, businesses, municipalities and individuals in a wide range of litigation in both federal and state courts.

Registration, Information and Fees

Please register for this webinar on-line: go to WCRP's website www.wcrp.info then click on the TRAINING link. Instructions on how to access the webinar on your computer will be provided via e-mail prior to the class. Participants will have a chance to share questions they have prior to class, and will also be encouraged to submit questions during the webinar. This class is free for WCRP Member County Employees.

Credits Available for This Class

1 CPO Core Credit
1.5 CLE Credits

Questions?

Contact Jill Lowe at 360-292-4492 or jill@wcrp.wa.gov

