- Ethics versus Morals
- Washington's Law on Local Government Ethics
- Conflicts of Interest: Local Codes
- Incompatibility of holding Public Offices
- Misuse of Government Resources
- Appearance of Fairness Issues
- Gifts
- Inappropriate Disclosure of Public Information
- Outside Employment
- Revolving Door Issues
- Financial Disclosures
- Whistleblower Protection

AUDIENCE: All member county staff and officials are welcome (WCRP members only).

REGISTRATION CAP: Up to 475 attendees.

VIRTUAL TRAINING EXPECTATIONS:

- The level of participation and interaction is light to moderate, with cameras being optional. Questions during the training are welcomed.
- Members of the same agency are permitted to attend together in small groups. If attending in a group, we ask that each person registers individually and that you share the attendee list with WCRP during the training so we can maintain attendance records.
- This training will be recorded for internal use as we explore future delivery options, and it will not be available for distribution at this time.

REGISTRATION & FEES: This training is available to WCRP members only, at no charge. $25 no-show fee may be assessed if cancellation notice is not received 24-hours prior to the training.
