

Navigating the Performance Evaluation Process

Performance evaluations are an essential step in creating a positive, efficient workplace. Many employment law related cases can be avoided or successfully defended if performance reviews are conducted regularly and work deficiencies are properly documented and discussed.

The Instructors:

Connie Poulsen comes to us from a 25 year career with Xerox Corporation. Connie owns her own business, Poulsen Management Training and Consulting and she holds Bachelors and Masters degrees from California State University, Long Beach.

Michael Bolasina is a labor and employment law attorney with the Seattle law firm Summit Law Group. Mike has worked for counties, cities, and other government entities on labor and employment issues for 25 years.

Participant will gain:

- Managerial and legal guidelines for conducting performance reviews
- Tools for model evaluations and performance assessment processes
- Strategies for documenting and completing evaluations
- Lessons learned from interactive small group discussions and real-life scenarios
