The WCRP Presents:

Management & Supervisory 101 Series

This six-hour program will be delivered virtually in three parts:

October 13, 20, 27, 2021 | 10:00am-12:00pm each day

Instructed by Connie Poulsen, Poulsen Management Training and Consulting

Managing a workforce poses challenges but also has rewards. Connie is a seasoned instructor with real work-place experience who will navigate both new and veteran managers/supervisors through this curriculum, addressing issues public-sector managers and supervisors frequently face. This highly regarded training from Connie has been formatted from her single day in-person training into an interactive virtual series, broken down into three two-hour sessions.

Topics covered in this 3-part series:

- Day 1: Leadership
- Day 2: Communication
- Day 3: Ethics

Attendees must commit to all three session dates within the series to receive credit, and will automatically be enrolled into all three session dates at registration.

AUDIENCE: Recommended for new managers and supervisors, or as a refresher. Available exclusively for WCRP members.

REGISTRANT CAP: Limited to 50 attendees.

REGISTRATION & FEES: This series is available to WCRP members only, at no charge. Attending all three dates is required. $25 no-show fee may be assessed if cancellation notice is not received 24-hours prior to the start of the series.
