

The WCRP Presents:

Situational Awareness & Personal Safety

4-Part Webinar Series

INSTRUCTOR: Jesus M. Villahermosa, Jr., Crisis Reality Training, Inc.

About the instructor: Jesus' career in law enforcement and public safety fueled his passion for people and their emotional, mental, and physical security. Early in his career, Jesus noticed how body language, communication, and compassion could diffuse people in crisis and make a more meaningful impact. Jesus began his own consulting business in 1986 teaching his proven verbal de-escalation and safety-related skills. Under Jesus' interactive and humorous approach, Crisis Reality Training has grown to international prominence. Jesus successfully provides thought provoking ideas, practical application of proven techniques, and real-life stories while conducting speaking events to colleges, universities, and large corporations.

OVERVIEW: With increased civil unrest and the potential for workplace violence, employees need to be aware of their surroundings and form a plan of action now more than ever. Participants of this 4-part series will come away with a better understanding of how certain situations trigger a reaction or "gut instinct" and what that instinct is trying to tell you. Jesus will teach practical skills to help participants actively practice situational awareness and identify some of the pre-cursors of violence. Jesus will then dive into essential skills to verbally de-escalate tense situations, and will also identify when fleeing the situation is the best and safest option.

Principals and concepts will build throughout the series and attending all parts of the series is highly recommended. Each webinar will be 90-minutes.
