

Leading a Workplace Free of Harassment and Discrimination

Join us for this 3-hour virtual workshop!

September 11, 2023 | 9:30am-12:30pm

Instructed by Janelle Tarasewicz, Principal Consultant, Aperture EQ

DESCRIPTION: This training prepares leaders to cultivate and maintain a workplace culture resistant to discrimination, harassment, and retaliation. In addition to discussing the basic principles and laws guiding discrimination and harassment, this training will also discuss how our unconscious biases impact discriminatory behaviors. Participants will be equipped with the information and skills that promote intervention and empathy, including how to prevent unlawful harassment and identify behaviors that are not acceptable in the workplace.

Learning Objectives:

- Explain the science behind our hidden bias, so we can better understand how our attitudes and stereotypes are developed and how this process impacts discriminatory behaviors.
- Review societal and workplace culture and how it impacts what is perceived as acceptable behavior.
- Develop an understanding of discrimination and harassment, as well as discuss its prevention.
- Review federal and state laws governing discrimination, harassment, and retaliation in the workplace.
- Understanding our role as leaders to foster an inclusive and respectful workplace.

AUDIENCE: This workshop is designed for leads, supervisors, managers, and organizational leaders (WCRP members only). Registration required.

REGISTRATION CAP: Limited to 30 attendees

VIRTUAL WORKSHOP EXPECTATIONS:

- There is a high level of participation and interaction, therefore, attendees will need to join from devices with camera, microphone, and chat capabilities.
